

Direct Debit Bank (LSV+) or PostFinance (CH-DD)

Never again transfer money yourself or modify standing orders – have your premiums debited directly via the bank with LSV+ or PostFinance with CH-DD.

More time for the important things in life. When you have your premiums debited via LSV+ or CH-DD, you have no hassles at all, none in terms of time or money.

No hassles

No effort – Premiums are automatically debited and adjusted in the event of changes

No risks

Full control – Possibility to object to charges within 30 days

No costs

Save on bank or postal fees – LSV+ and CH-DD are free

Direct Debit

Bank (LSV+) or PostFinance (CH-DD)

You would like to pay your premiums without effort and paper invoices? Then use the direct debit procedure with either LSV+ or CH-DD. To apply, please complete the attached form.

Your advantages and important information at a glance

- No more paper invoices (please continue to pay any paper invoices already received with the pay-in slip).
- Premiums are always debited on the last work day of the month.
- You may object in writing to a debit within 30 days at your bank or PostFinance.
- Premiums are refunded over the same bank or postal account.
- If a debit cannot be executed, you will receive a notice from CONCORDIA including a pay-in slip.
- Reductions or increases in premiums are automatically considered with the debiting.

Just register

LSV+: Please send the completed and signed form directly to your bank.

CH-DD: Please send the completed and signed form to CONCORDIA in the enclosed, pre-stamped envelope.

If you have any questions, please contact your CONCORDIA agency.